2. On 9 April, 150 Japanese horses and 200 Chinese ponies arrived in Canton by rail from the north, and shortly thereafter were distributed to Chinese Communist artillery units in south Kwangtung. This is in result to a recent request by Kwangtung military authorities for animals as well as vehicles to replace heavy losses of mules and horses. A total of 1,400 mules and horses of Chinese Communist military units in Kwangtung died between 1 March 1950 and 31 March 1952.
